

State Finances of Haryana

Hooda, Yogita

The subject matter of this book is State Finances of Haryana with major focus on revenue side of finance. Different sources of revenue available to State Government have been discussed in detailed which helps to identify the revenue generation capacity of State Government and as well as its dependency on resources of Central Government. The study of revenue pattern helps to determine socio-economic and fiscal position by analyzing that revenue growth is adequate or not for making required development expenditure. A brief analysis of expenditure pattern is also made in the book. This is a valuable book for students, teachers and researchers of economics and commerce. It is an excellent resource for economists and finance professionals.
